A DISTRIBUTION DIVIDEND PAID.

Blue Bird Mining Co. Pro Rates $1,000 Among Shareholders.

TAKEN FROM TREASURY.

Represents the Balance on Hand at Time Property Was Closed Down -Other Mining News.

At a meeting of the Blue Bird Mining company, held yesterday afternoon, it was decided to divide the balance of $1,000 now in the treasury among the shareholders. The above sum repreto % cent per share, which was ordered paid yesterday.

As there were 6,000 shares in the treasury, the above distribution will leave a balance on hand sufficient to

The above course was deemed advisable on account of the difficulty with the water at the property, which makes development work too expensive for the shareholders at the present time.

CALL ON 'CHANGE.

Ajax Opened Pit Work This Morning-The Business Transacted.

Ajax opened the all, and the trading on the exchange this morning with a sale of 2,100 shares at raising figures, and closed strong at 84% cents per share. From this a jump was made the Con. Mercur before another seller was found, when 200 shares changed hands at $3.20. Daly entered the lists and handed out 500 shares at figures around $2.17 per share, closing at that figure. Eagle and Blue Bell sold on a steady market at figures around 80 cents, 1,100 shares of the security ing dealt in.

The feature of the day, however, was The feature of the day, however, was when Lower Mammoth was reached. Two thousand shares of this high priced stock participated in the trading, selling as high as $3.26 per share, when it slightly broke and closed at $3.21, the last sale being effected at $3.22. In point of shares sold, Ben Butler carried off the palm, 1,300 shares going in a block for 7%, and an active going in a block for 7¼, and an active block of 2,000 being 7 cents straight, Grand Central was a seller at $6.01 per share, which was bid at the close, with holders asking $6.07,

Among the non-sellers Daly West is still among the clouds, $33 being of-fered for this security without bring-ing out a share, while Silver King was the king of the exchange with an offer-

"Way Down East" has done just what George H. Murray and the Salt Lake Theater management hoped for-it has caught the fancy of the town and is doing big business. Last night's performance was a duplication in size, interest and strength of the initial performance on Monday night, and the matinee this afternoon was a picture to behold. There were lowering clouds and ominous meteorological conditions well nigh everywhere. On the outside weather was about as unpleasant as it could be and within Grismer's patent snow storm covered the stage knee deep. The only place where tranquility reigned supreme was in the hearts of the audience, which manifested entire approval of the piece. The sale for tonight's performance and for those the rest of the week is good.

FEDERAL COURT.

An answer to the complaint filed by the plaintiff in the case of Charles A. Armstrong vs Overland Gold Mining company was filed in the Federal court today. The complaint alleged that the defendant owed to the plaintiff the sum of $3,473.26 on a promissory note, and also $1,085, which was advanced to the defendant later. Two charges are brought, and judgment is prayed for to recover the two amounts. The answer admits having obtained the money as the plaintiff agreed to take $2,000 bonds of the company to be applied on the amount due the plaintiff. The defendant is willing to pay the $2,000 in the bonds of the Overland company, and also $3,116.20 to close up the account.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed in the Federal court today by Edwin Dowden. The liabilities consist of unsecured claims amounting to $4,041.40, and the assets amount to $75, which is claimed EVERYTHING TAXABLE. Attorney General Breeden Delivers an Opinion for Speaker Glasmann.

Attorney General Breeden today delivered the following opinion to Hon. William Glasmann, Speaker of the House of Representatives: Dear Sir-In behalf of the House of Representatives, you ask this question, and seek the opinion of this office "Are any franchises granted by the United States exempt from taxation in Utah, by virtue of the Constitution of Utah or of any law of the United Answering the above question, I beg to say that there is no constitutional provision in our Constitution exempting Federal franchises from taxation, but on the contrary, all property, real, personal, and mixed, including franchises, is subject to taxation, under the provisions of Sec. 2, art. XIII of the Constitution of Utah.

Now within the scope of your question is involved the question whether tion is involved the question whether the State posseses the power to lay a tax upon a federal franchise. These franchises are granted for some national purpose, and to subserve some na-tional end. It would seem clear that a State can neither take them away, nor destroy nor abridge them, nor cripple them by onerous burdens far. ation is a burden and may be held so heavily as to destroy the thing land, or render it valueless. Chief Jases John Marshall said in McCullohn Maryland: "The power to tax invoke the power to destroy." Without extending this discussion to any great length, we must conclude that under the fundamental principle that the formal laws of the United States are the supreme laws of the land frachises conferred by Congress cained, without its permission, be taxed by the States. The question now arises what, if my franchises, in this State, are creams of Congress, and are within the principal of Congress, and are within the principal above laid down? I find this a differ proposition to answer, because it is volves a question of fact, and I have been unable to discover thus far in my investigations any guide to lead me to positive conclusion as to the valous federal franchises existing in Utah Te. National Bank franchises are ereap, and the U. P. railroad and C. P. railroad franchises were issued by authority at Congress, and therefore, within the principle, as long as they existed in favor of the government, were exempt, but as I understand, the U. P. and C. P. railroad corporations executed morigages to the government covering an of their respective interests in the frachises and tangible presents. of their respective interests in the franof their respective interests in the fran-chises and tangible property of what-ever character, and the morigagors de-faulted, and the morigages were fore-closed by the government, and the prop-erty, franchises, etc., were sold, and thus the government parted with all of its interest in and to these franchises and they, together with the road bel, ties, ralls, etc., became the property of the corporation or persons who became the purchasers at said sale. Your are therefore, on this theory, advised that, in my opinion, the government has no interest in the franchises of the Union Pacific and the C. P. railroads, and all the property, both corporeal and incorporeal, now owned by these companies, are subject to the provisions of art. XIII, section 2, of the Constitution of Utah,
